Thank you to everyone who participated in International Sabbath and the International Food Fair last week. Your willingness to share your cultures, food, and fellowship made it a wonderful and meaningful celebration for our church family. We appreciate everyone who helped organize, set up, bring food, carry flags, and support the event. Thank you for making it such a special day. We look forward to celebrating together again in 2028!

March 28 is Safety Sabbath. We will have a safety drill in between sabbath school and church.

You're invited to our Agape Feast and communion on April 3rd at 6:30 PM. Come enjoy fellowship, food, and community as we gather together.
