Improvement Project to refresh and enhance the look of our sanctuary. Restoration of the beams and painting of the walls are currently underway and are expected to be completed next week. Once that work is finished, attention will turn to the pews. As the project progresses, the sanctuary may not always look its best. Our contractors have been asked to work around our Sabbath worship schedule, and we appreciate your patience and understanding while these improvements are being completed. Thank you for your understanding! -The Décor Team
